

Let's Learn About the Letter C!

Hello Super Writer! Today we are going on an adventure to learn all about a very cool letter: the Letter C! It makes a sound like 'kuh' - like in 'cat' and 'cookie'!

Materials We Need:

- Large Construction Paper
- Crayons or Markers
- Child-Safe Scissors (for adult use)
- Glue Stick
- Fun 'C' items: Cotton balls, Cheerios, dry Corn kernels, Confetti, cut-up Colorful paper scraps
- Optional: Whiteboard and marker, or paper and pencil
- Optional: A book featuring the letter 'C' (e.g., 'The Very Hungry Caterpillar', 'If You Give a Cat a Cupcake')

Let's Get Started!

First, let's look at the letter C. Here's the big uppercase C, and here's the small lowercase c. They look like a curve, like a smile missing a piece!

Can you say the sound C makes? /k/ /k/ /k/! Good job! What fun things start with the /k/ sound? Cat! Car! Cup! Cake! Cow! Can you think of any more?

Activity 1: Crafty C Collage!

Okay, ask your grown-up to carefully cut out a big letter 'C' shape from the construction paper. Now it's your turn to decorate it! Use the glue stick and cover your 'C' with our special 'C' items: fluffy Cotton balls, crunchy Cheerios, bumpy Corn, colorful Confetti! Make your C look amazing!

Activity 2: C Tracing Fun!

Let's practice making the letter C. It's just one big curve! We can trace it in the air with our fingers. Whee! Now, let's try tracing it on paper or a whiteboard. Start at the top and curve around. Great work! Try making some Cs all by yourself.

Story Time (Optional)

Let's snuggle up and read a story that has lots of C words or features the letter C! Listen carefully for the /k/ sound.

Wrap Up!

Wow! You learned so much about the letter C today! You know what it looks like (C, c), what sound it makes (/k/), and you even made a cool C craft! Show everyone your fantastic C collage! Keep looking for the letter C in books and signs around you. You are a C-Superstar!
